GOLFING LESSONS ABOUT GOD "7 Days in Utopia"

My husband has a passion for the sport of golf. I have gone with him on occasion to play and sometimes just to ride with him as he's requested my company. This sport is not one to take lightly. Even the professionals must constantly perfect their game just to stay in the running.

From my perspective, it is a sport one can really never master as it changes from one time to the next, even when playing on a familiar course. The weather and the height of the grass can have a major impact on your game. In keeping with his love of the sport, a new movie just came out titled, "7 Days in Utopia." It's a movie about golfing and so much more. Actually, I highly recommend that you go see it.

I don't want to ruin the story line for anyone so I must carefully share this thought with you. The bottom line is this: See God, Feel His Presence, and Trust Him.

To get a better understanding of what this means, you must see this movie which uses golf to teach lessons about one's relationship with God.
