SHOW ME, SCHOOL ME, TAKE ME, LEAD ME (PART 2)

Dr. Vanessa Dantzer Ussery | September 2, 2015

"Show me how you work, GOD; School me in your ways. Take me by the hand; Lead me down the path of truth. You are my Savior, aren't you?"- Psalm 25:4-5, New Message Bible

For some of us our greatest challenge is to accept the forgiveness of God in our life. We see our past as an indicator of our present and it impedes our growth. David made many mistakes while God was leading him to and through his destiny. The changes we make in life to conform to the will of God work better when we accept the reality that we are forgiven. The psalmist places this fact before God when he states, "forget that I sowed wild oats." We are all guilty of a past that is less than honorable. The Lord knows this and, therefore, has provided us the plan of salvation and within it, the means to maintain right standing with the Lord.

We are marked with the sign of love as we are born again believers. Remember John 3:16, "For God so greatly loved and clearly prized the world that He gave up His only begotten Son, so that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life," (Amplified Bible). With such love being given to all, and you accepting it, the outcome is a belief that He has and will plan only the best for you.

It's a fact God is fair and just. His justness required a sacrifice be given to atone for our sin. His display of fairness is with that debt being paid everyone has the privilege to benefit from it. The benefit is being loved unconditionally with a bright and fulfilling life here and in eternity.

He shows us how to change our image into His, now that we are regenerated to reach our destiny by correcting our misdirected thinking. When we embrace what He reveals then He points us to the path that leads to what is best for us. This shows you how God works!
