A 12-MINUTE CHANGE

"...I will not forget Your word." Psalm 119:16b NKJV

"Have you ever wondered how long it would take you to read the entire bible? If you read it out loud at a pace that is easy to understand, you could travel from Genesis to Revelation in seventy-eight hours. Divide that out over the course of one year and you would discover that God's Word could be completed in 365 days by reading it just twelve minutes a day. As Christian Johnson said, 'A bible that's falling apart probably belongs to someone who isn't'." The Almanac of the Christian World, 1993-1994 Edition, p. 240

Can you spare twelve minutes a day? I think it is well worth the investment of one's time. Wouldn't you prefer to utilize your time in a way that can provide you the strength needed to handle the events of the day? I would much rather see my bible falling apart from use, then I be used up and begin falling apart. This is a worthwhile change wouldn't you say?
