A SCARY DAY

"Then I saw a great white throne and Him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. And there was found no place for them. And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before God, and books were opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged according to their works, by the things which were written in the books. The sea gave up the dead who were in it, and Death and Hades delivered up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works. Then Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. And anyone not found written in the Book of Life was cast into the lake of fire." Revelation 20:11-15 NKJV

Today is a day when people around this country seem to enjoy the grim and dark side of life. Witches, warlocks, demons, monsters, vampires, etc are given much recognition on Halloween. Children dress up in costumes resembling some character or image they like and collect candy as a way of celebrating Halloween. Occult practices of many types are done as a way to honor Satan and the powers of darkness. This particular day has escalated in significance for those who worship Satan and believe in casting spells and performing ungodly rituals. For many of these believers it is a 'high holy' day and they look forward to it and plan for ways to celebrate and worship the host of darkness. Frankly, it would be a great day to host a prayer service to intervene against the works of darkness and cry out to God for a mighty move of His Spirit to deliver many from the clutches of hell.

This particular day is highly recognized in theaters and on the television. The entertainment world floods us with opportunities to watch all kinds of shows to feed the hunger of society for the macabre and demonic influence in people's lives. Sadly many Christians flock to watch it and laugh it off as mere entertainment. I believe we should select what to watch and not engage in supporting media that glorifies the works of Satan.

Please read the scriptures above if you haven't done so yet. There is a real scary day coming and it's not for entertainment. Facing God one day is something everyone must and will do. When God's judgment is passed and one is sentenced to the lake of fire that's a scary day. The most scary thing about it is it's a day that never ends as it lasts for eternity. Let's not promote Halloween as a scary day but tell everyone there is a scary day coming if one is not ready to face the Lord!
