DO WHAT WE KNOW TO DO

Dr. Vanessa Dantzer Ussery | February 7, 2018

"The secret things belong unto Jehovah our God but the things that are revealed belong unto us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law." - Deuteronomy 29:29 (ASV)

Have you ever noticed that when children get called on the carpet about their misbehavior some will resort to saying, "I didn't know?" They believe this gives them a way out of being responsible for their actions. Adults have a way of playing that game too. We play innocent as if God can't read our mind/heart and He doesn't know what we know.

This scripture makes it very clear that what God has revealed to us in His word we are held responsible to comply. For sure there are things we do not know. Many things in life remain unknown to us and only known to God. However, He does not leave us room to be unaccountable for our actions. We are required to do what we know to do all the time. Those occasions when we choose to override what we know to do, we then must confess our wrong to the Lord. The reason for that is we also know we are to confess our sin.

So, no matter how you look at it, God is expecting us to do what we know to do as His children. It's time to change from hiding behind the door of I don't know and start practicing to do what we know to do to live in alignment with the Word of God.
