HELP ME GROW LORD!

Dr. Vanessa Dantzler Ussery | October 5, 2016

This life of growing in Christ is challenging. I'm committed to it and I know you are, too.

Of course when we declare such positives be aware our enemy aims to throw a good fiery dart to throw us off. We know it is warfare, so we can't run from the battle; we must face it head on. When under attack that's when we must cry out and say, "Help me grow, Lord!"

Our evolving world is on a fast track being led by Satan to utter destruction. It seems like a whirlwind of change filled with turmoil. When a whirlwind comes through it destroys everything in its path. That means you and I must remain on the pathway of holiness to avoid being consumed in the whirlwind of the world. This past week has been a season where the whirlwind was coming my way. The only place of safety was in the arms of Jesus. I went to my knees and cried out for help. The Lord took me to Psalm 27:5, "In the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion: in the secret of His tabernacle shall He hide me."

So much of what is familiar to us in life is fading, and we need the Lord to strengthen our faith. These challenges come because it is time for us to do more growing and maturing in the Lord. We feel the growing pains through our struggles. We must praise God He does not let us be consumed by the whirlwind of turmoil. Each time it's hurled our way avoid being consumed by crying out and say, "Help me grow, Lord!"
