I AM CONVINCED

Dr. Vanessa Dantzler Ussery | March 18, 2015

We all pretty much agree that our adversary, the accuser of the brethren works overtime trying to convince us we are never going to live our life to please God. He enjoys capitalizing on our weakness and sings the song "Failure" in our ears daily. Many believers have given up on their walk with God because of this. I would like to remind us of what we already know, 'the devil is a liar.'

The Lord Jesus Christ has provided us salvation and forgiven us of our sins so we can have an eternal relationship with God. He has provided repentance in the plan so we can maintain our relationship with God. The Word of God washes our heart as it alerts us of our sins so we can confess our sins and aim to abandon them. Hearing the preached and taught Word, reading the Word and meditating on the Word is our primary means to evaluate our life in the context of His holiness. It's not a condemnation tool but a conviction tool. Our discovery of shortcomings/sins is revealed to improve our character and our enemy uses it to tear us down as a person. We must not allow his tactics to dominant our thinking.

Be encouraged to know in Philippians 1:6 (AMP) says, "And I am convinced and sure of this very thing, that that He Who began a good work in you will continue until the day of Jesus Christ [right up to the time of His return], developing [that good work] and perfecting and bringing it to full completion in you." We must be convinced that our Lord has the power and authority to fulfill His vision of how He sees us. No demon in hell can prevent us from becoming like Christ. Obstacles, challenges, setbacks, flaws are in His management control. I am convinced I will see Him in the rapture... you should be convinced to. Let Him work on us so we become that finished person in Christ!
