

CelebrateChange.org

September 23, 2011

IF LOVING YOU IS WRONG, I DON'T WANT TO BE RIGHT

"For this reason God gave them over and abandoned them to vile affections and degrading passions." Romans 1:26, Amplified Bible

IT'S OVER! That's what the caption read on the AOL news Tuesday, September 20, 2011. Many rejoiced because the military has lifted the "don't ask don't tell" ban. Men and women who serve in the military can freely express they are gay. It's expressed everywhere you turn in the public world so it's no surprise that it is now accepted in the military. Soon the marriage issue will be resolved to accept gay marriage, nationally. No matter who liberates homosexuality as being an acceptable lifestyle, no one will be able to change God's stand on this issue.

It appears the world is saying there is no validity between being born a certain gender as we can choose our own gender. The physiological distinction between male and female is no longer a determining factor of one's gender. Our young people are beginning to engage in homosexual relationships at elementary school age. Their teachers and other role models before them are persuading them that the biblical perspective is outdated or just not true.

Men and women have decided that who they love is their choice and some go so far as to say God is into love and love is not gender specific. It's as though that old sing "If loving you is wrong, I don't want to be right," is now applicable to gay love relationships. It is wrong in the eyes of God and it will never be right.

We can't afford to be passive in our acceptance of these changing world views. The church must hold to our godly view which is based on what is written in the Word of God.

Residing in Fort Worth, TX, Dr. Vanessa Dantzler Ussery is the former Senior Pastor of Home Assembly Church in Los Angeles and currently serves as its Chief Executive Officer. She is also the founder of "Celebrate Change Ministries" and the author of "My Be Attitude: Who Be You?", which is available online in softcover or eBook at MyBeAttitude.org, Xulon Press, Amazon and Barnes & Noble. Dr. Ussery is available for national speaking engagements, empowerment seminars, and lectures.

Info@CelebrateChange.org / 866-232-8176