YES I CAN

"I can do all things in Him that strengtheneth me." Philippians 4:13 KJV

The slogan during our President's campaign was "Yes we can." He was fostering energy of positive enthusiasm blended with confidence into people's heart that he could win the election with their support. This message was repeated and repeated until it became spoken around the country like a chant that sparked hope and inspiration into people wherein the crowd grew and the belief spread that Barack Obama would be the next President of the United States.

Promoting energy of positive enthusiasm blended with confidence is not an original idea of man however, it is founded in God. Our Lord dwells within us as believers and repeats to us as often as we need to hear it by reading His word and speaking to our heart that He infuses us, via His Spirit, with inner strength to be self-sufficient in Christ Jesus. That means, "Yes I can!" If that mindset helped win an election, just imagine what you and I can accomplish in our life believing we can be the best and attain our highest goal(s) in life relying on Christ. That type of thinking should charge us to campaign in our lives on behalf of what the Lord has inspired you to become or do. We all should administer Philippians 4:13 into our minds three times a day and chase it with the words, "Yes I Can," as our booster shot that launches us into our destiny.
